

VeriWave Exec Named CFO of the Year

PORTLAND, OR, May 20, 2012 – VeriWave, Inc. Chief Financial Officer Kellie VavRosky was named CFO of the Year by the Portland Business Journal. Kellie VavRosky was selected over 100-plus nominees for playing a key role in VeriWave’s continuous growth and profitability.

“With several consecutive quarters of profitability under its belt and 15 percent to 20 percent growth each year since 2008, it’s fair to say VeriWave has turned the corner from startup status,” says Melody Finnemore, contributed writer for Portland Business Journal.

Kellie VavRosky joined VeriWave in 2005 with more than 20 years’ experience in financial and capital management, including banking, international finance, treasury and internal control. In 2008 Kellie VavRosky was an AFP Honors Recipient - The AFP Honors recognizes the best of the best in the treasury and finance industry.
